Crane Joins Athletics; McHale Here To-Morrow

Indications that Connie Mack is taking steps to build up his 1016 machine came yesterday, when he wired Manager Dunn to send "Red" Crane to St. Louis to join the Athietics. Crane left on a night train, and will probably get in some of the Western games. This means a shakeup in the line-up of the Richmond team. Arragon will go to short, and Healey will be shifted to second. Fewster or Pick will play third, which will give the locals one of the best infields in the International League.

"Marty" McHale, the twirer, will be here to-morrow, when Richmond opens a triple double-header series with the Rochester Hustlers.

Manager Dunn went to Baltimore

Manager Dunn went to Baltimore last night to spend to-day, and will be here to guide the Climbers to victory in the Rochester series.

SECOND GAME,

SUFFOLK, VA., August 21.—Suffolk made it three out of four to-day by winning both ends of a double-header from the Orphans. Both games were played under threatening weather conditions, as a heavy cloud hung over during the entire afternoon. Poole pitched the first game in rare style, allowing only four safeties and walking one. May started the second game, and after filling the bases with passes was relieved by Poole, who retired the side without a run. Both contests were marked by slow, listless playing on both sides, which is evident from the error column, there being a total of sixteen in the two contests. Scores:

This entitles Portner to meet the champions of Washington next Saturday to play for the intercity championship, the first games of which will be played in Washington.

The game yesterday was a beautiful exhibiton from start to finish, and the faithful followers of Jack Dunn's Virginians, who had not seen the sandlotters play, were well paid for their early trip to the park to take advantage of the double attraction.
